RULES & REGULATIONS

Entry/Processing Fee: $100 per head

Entry Deadline: August 1, 2009

Entries postmarked after August 1, 2009 will be assessed an additional $50 late fee.

Sale Managed by: James Danekas & Associates, Inc.

Sale Sanctioned by: California Charolais Association

1. Signed registration papers, plus a $ 100.00 per head fee ($75.00 entry fee, $25 processing fee, processing fee is refunded on bulls that go through the ring) along with the completed entry form must be sent to James Danekas & Associates, Inc., 9960 Business Park Dr. Ste. 170, Sacramento, CA 95827. No cattle will be cataloged without the $100.00 entry/processing fee. Entries postmarked after August 1, 2009 will be assessed an additional $50 entry fee per lot. Entry fee is non-refundable.
2. Sale costs will be pro-rated on a per lot basis with the entry fee applied to the pro-rated sale costs. 6 ¼ % will be deducted for sales commission, plus any other fees directly chargeable to the consignors (i.e. brand inspection, transfers, Beef Council Etc.). Facility fees will be divided equally by the number of bulls that arrive at the sale.
3. No limit on number of entries, however, if numbers exceed the desired amount of entries, larger consignors will be notified and asked to cut some numbers.
4. Bulls born between 9/1/07 and 10/1/08 are eligible for the sale.
5. There will be a Grand and a Reserve Grand Champion Charolais bull that will be selected.
6. The Sale Management may check tattoos. Make sure to check your tattoos before you arrive at the sale.
7. All bulls must be semen tested by an accredited veterinarian or a NAAB or CSS approved technician. Semen test must be completed within 30 days prior to the sale. All semen test results must be in the sales office by 5:00 p.m. October 8th.
8. Health Requirements:
  - A. All bulls must be vaccinated for Anaplasmosis prior to the sale. Killed Anaplas vaccine may be obtained through your vet or the Californian Wool Growers office in Sacramento call 916-444-8122. The killed is a 2 cc shot, one cc initially and the second cc three weeks later. Plan your schedule so this is done prior to the sale.
  - B. All bulls must have a negative trich test prior to the sale.
  - C. All cattle must be eligible for interstate shipment. Consignors are responsible for all tests that would be necessary for shipment outside of California. These test would have to be completed after the sale and will be seller's expense.
9. Cattle will be graded and sifted for quality and soundness. A minimum weight of 1050 lbs. will be required. All sifted cattle must be removed from the sale pens by 6:00 a.m. October 10th.

10. Sale order will be determined by the sale management.
11. Entry fee is forfeited in the event that cattle are not sold due to sifting or not arriving at the sale. Cattle arriving and stalled at the sale (including any chosen not to be sold by the consignor) will be charged pro-rated sale costs.
12. Consignors having "no sales" must pay pro-rated sale costs and "no sale" commissions at the price announced by the auctioneer.
13. Substitutes will be allowed if legitimate (death, injury, etc.).
14. No added entries will be accepted after the catalog goes to press.
15. Consignors must be members of the California Charolais Association. Non-members will have membership fees deducted from their sale proceeds.
16. Consignors will be responsible for their cattle until delivery arrangements have been made.
17. Consignors are urged to have their trucks and trailers available sale day. All consignors must check in with sale office before leaving sale site for possible deliveries. Consignors who leave without checking in the sales office and if cattle are needed to go their direction will be assessed a penalty to cover any additional hauling fees on those lots.
18. Consignors are urged to send photos and current weights on consignments for possible use in the advertising and/or catalog.
19. The sale may take up to 30 working days to close. Sellers must be aware of the time to collect proceeds, clear checks and pay the bills. Only after all the bills are received can the sale be closed. Proceeds will be sent to consignors only after all consignors' paperwork has been completed and payment has been received from the purchaser. All sales and guarantees are between buyer and seller.
