

It is a pleasure to assist you in this year's Cascade Spectacular sale. We look forward to working with you in making this the top notch event that it is known for. We ask you, the consignors as a whole, to bring your best to the sale as we all want to put our best foot forward for this event which means quality is key.

Please respect all deadlines as we would like to keep to schedule to ensure the catalog is published at the correct point in time to insure proper promotion. Please only send in photos of entries that will make you proud and presents the animal in the best way possibly.

If you have photos of any entries, please send them as soon as possible as we may be able to use them in sale advertising prior to the catalog being printed.

If you would like individual promotion of your offering, please contact me directly as we can build and send out e-blasts on individual consignments at a special Cascade Spectacular rate.

This is a joint effort and working together will make this a very successful event!

We look forward to seeing you in Redmond and working with you in the months prior.

All the Best,

Mercedes Danekas-Lohse
