The Bar R production sale kicked off on Friday evening with wonderful hospitality which included a fantastic meal with an array of Wagyu cuts and hearty side dishes, good drink and most importantly a large group of people there to help celebrate the inaugural Bar R Production Sale. The new and beautiful Bar R sale facility filled up quickly on sale day morning as many arrived early in anticipation of the day's events. The event brought visitors from all over the United States and two countries. After lunch was served, another wonderful Wagyu meal, all of the seats and bleachers were filled with over 100 people as the auction began. The online auction service, LiveAucitons.tv, was also busy as there were at least 150 people online watching and participating in the auction. The Bar R Production sale was a success and Bar R genetics sold to breeders all over the United States, Germany and Australia.
