* All frozen genetics are stored at Hawkeye Breeders in Iowa and or Brushy Creek in Texas.

* A wire or check payment must be made to "JDA" prior to any genetics and/or live lots are released to the buyer.

* All live lots (bulls) are located at the Double 8 farm in Ohio and must be picked up within 7 days of purchase. After 7 days of the auction, buyer will incur a daily management fee which must be paid in full prior to receiving the animal.

* Buyer will have 14 days after sale day to transfer frozen genetics from storage facility or into their own account. After the 14 days, the buyer will incur storage facility fees.

- This direct-to-consumer e-commerce platform allows the owner to sell Wagyu beef products directly to the consumer.
- Bypass the time, effort, and money it takes to develop a multifaceted platform from scratch and achieve a large brand following. Go directly to step 10, and skip steps 1-9!
- Extensive website with 80+ Wagyu beef products, photos, descriptions, collections, and a huge library of custom recipes.
- Website is ADA-compliant (which is important from a legal perspective and for customer accessibility).
- All D8C social media accounts and list/contact info for chefs and influencers.
- MailChimp account, templates, and campaigns.
- Facebook Ads account (which includes Instagram).
- Google Ads and all Google-related accounts.
- Branded items, such as logos, brochures, flyers, and advertisements.
- Hundreds of custom recipes and high-resolution photos (these are GREAT for using in advertisements/promotions).
- All related applications, including LaunchPad, which allows the owner to easily set up and schedule sales.
- Fraud detection is set up and included.
- Route Shipment Protection (shipping insurance application) is set up and included.
- "The Wonkey Wagyu" trademarked - promotional random cut box - this is included within the Lot 1 package
